

Zero Trust Adoption resources

What's included?

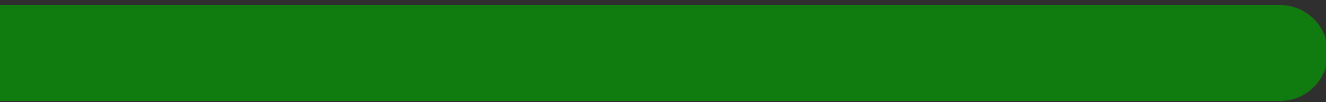

Progress tracker for each business scenario

- Tracks recommended tasks across four stages
- Read the included instructions to use the tracking features
- Customize these for your organization

Stakeholder teams for each business scenario

- Example stakeholder teams for each business scenario
- Customize the team for your organization

Secure remote and hybrid work

Secure remote and hybrid work

Stage 1

- Verify and secure every identity with strong authentication
- Integrate SaaS apps with Azure AD for single sign-on
- New applications that are deployed use modern authentication

Stage 2

- Register devices with Azure AD
- Implement Zero Trust starting point identity and device access policies
- Use App Proxy with on-prem apps for single sign-on

Stage 3

- Enroll devices into management and apply recommended security protections
- Allow only compliant and trusted devices to access data

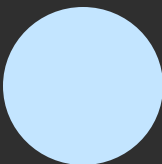

Stage 4

- Monitor device configuration drift
- Implement passwordless authentication

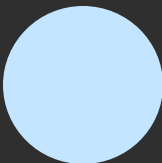

Regulatory Compliance Stakeholders

Security and/or Compliance Officer(s)/Leads

Sponsor
Firstname Lastname

Strategy, steering, escalation, approvals, business alignment, management coordination

Project Lead
Firstname Lastname

Manage overall engagement, resources, schedule, communications, etc.

Other

CISO
Firstname Lastname

Protection and governance of data assets and systems; risk and policy determination, tracking and reporting

IT Compliance Manager
Firstname Lastname

Determines required controls to address compliance and protection requirements

Internal Audit
Firstname Lastname

Investigation and reporting in cooperation with compliance and protection leads

Risk Manager
Firstname Lastname

Responsible for mitigating operational & technological risks within the organization

Arch lead
Firstname Lastname

Tech requirements, architecture, reviews, decisions & prioritization

Compliance Administrator
Firstname Lastname

Manage settings for device management, data loss prevention, reports, and preservation.

Identify and protect sensitive business data

Identify and protect your sensitive business data

Stage 1

- ◆ Discover and identify sensitive business data
- ◆ Discover non-sanctioned SaaS apps
- ◆ Encrypt network communication

Stage 2

- ◆ Develop and test a classification schema
- ◆ Apply labels to data across Microsoft 365
- ◆ Introduce basic DLP policies
- ◆ Set up secure Teams for sharing data internally and externally with business partners

Stage 3

- ◆ Add protection to labels
- ◆ Introduce automatic & recommended labeling
- ◆ Extend DLP policies across Microsoft 365
- ◆ Implement key insider risk management policies

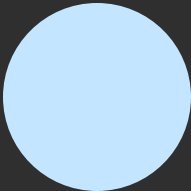

Stage 4

- ◆ Extend labels and protection to data in SaaS apps, including DLP
- ◆ Extend automated classification to all services
- ◆ Extend labels and protection to data in on-premises repositories
- ◆ Protect organization data in cloud infrastructure

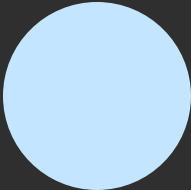

Information Protection Stakeholders

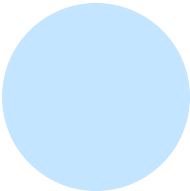

Sponsor
Firstname Lastname

Strategy, steering, escalation, approvals, business alignment, management coordination

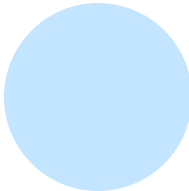

Project Lead
Firstname Lastname

Manage overall engagement, resources, timeline and schedule, communications, etc.

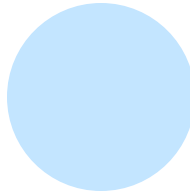

CISO
Firstname Lastname

Protection and governance of data assets and systems; risk and policy determination, tracking and reporting

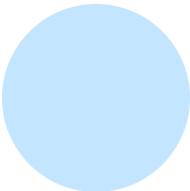

IT Compliance Manager
Firstname Lastname

Determines required controls to address compliance and protection requirements

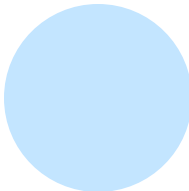

Investigation and audit roles
Firstname Lastname

Investigation and reporting in cooperation with compliance and protection leads

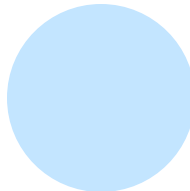

Information Protection Manager
Firstname Lastname

Data classification and sensitive data identification, controls and remediation

Arch Lead
Firstname Lastname

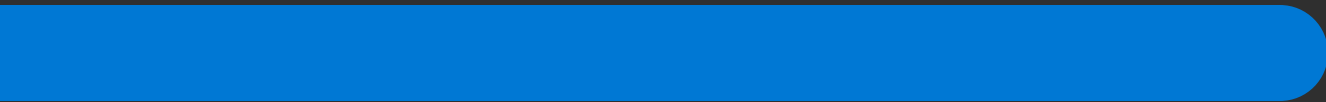

Tech requirements, architecture, reviews, decisions & prioritization

M365 admins
Firstname Lastname

Tenant/environment, preparation, configuration, testing

Rapidly modernize your security posture

Rapidly modernize your security posture

Stage 1

- ◆ Identify risks to your organization
- ◆ Identify gaps in your security posture
- ◆ Capture your initial Secure Score status
- ◆ Identify regulatory requirements
- ◆ Set leadership expectations

Stage 2

- ◆ Inventory your digital estate
- ◆ Implement basic hygiene practices
- ◆ Measure your business enablement improvements
- ◆ Update your status for Secure Score
- ◆ Capture your status in Compliance Manager

Stage 3

- ◆ Visualize your security posture using audience appropriate dashboards
- ◆ Document and manage shadow IT using defender for Cloud Apps
- ◆ Patch apps and systems methodically with time sensitivity

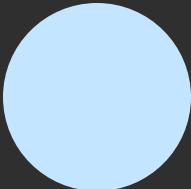

Stage 4

- ◆ Monitor and secure user entry points
- ◆ Continuously educate users
- ◆ Identify and manage risk
- ◆ Proactively monitor incidents and threats with Microsoft Sentinel and XDR tools

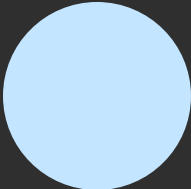

Security Posture Stakeholders

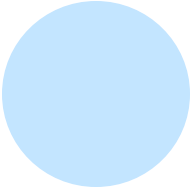

Sponsor
Firstname Lastname

Strategy, steering, escalation, approvals, business alignment, management coordination

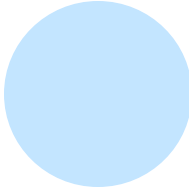

Project Lead
Firstname Lastname

Manage overall engagement, resources, timeline and schedule, communications, etc.

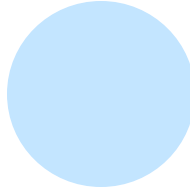

CISO
Firstname Lastname

Security and governance of identities, devices, and apps; risk and policy determination, tracking and reporting

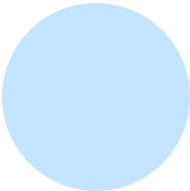

Arch Lead
Firstname Lastname

Tech requirements, architecture, reviews, decisions, and prioritization

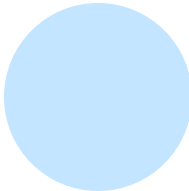

EUC Leads
Firstname Lastname

End user security and usability requirements; represents these into the project

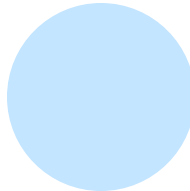

Device management architect
Firstname Lastname

Implements the strategy for protecting organization data on devices, including managing devices

App management lead
Firstname Lastname

Tech requirements, and prioritization of app investments — bringing apps up to standards with modern authentication and coordinating apps with conditional access rules

Services admins
Firstname Lastname

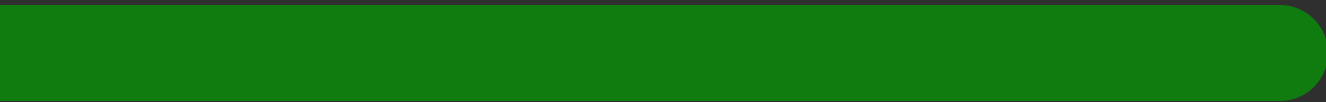

Investigation and reporting in cooperation with compliance and protection leads

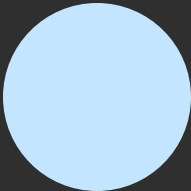

Business Unit Representative
Firstname Lastname

Business Unit leads, business and usability requirements, frontoffice vs backoffice, etc

Meet regulatory and compliance requirements

Regulatory Compliance Stakeholders

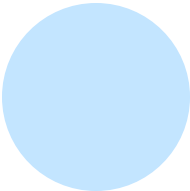

Sponsor
Firstname Lastname

Strategy, steering, escalation, approvals, business alignment, management coordination

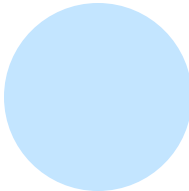

Project Lead
Firstname Lastname

Manage overall engagement, resources, timeline and schedule, communications, etc.

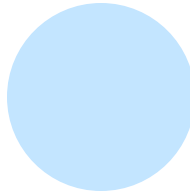

CISO
Firstname Lastname

Protection and governance of data assets and systems; risk and policy determination, tracking and reporting

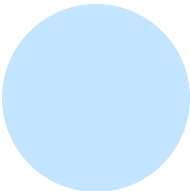

IT Compliance Manager
Firstname Lastname

Determines required controls to address compliance and protection requirements

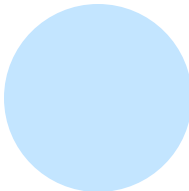

Investigation and audit roles
Firstname Lastname

Investigation and reporting in cooperation with compliance and protection leads

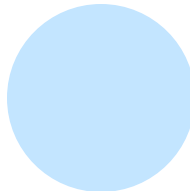

Information Protection Manager
Firstname Lastname

Data classification and sensitive data identification, controls and remediation

Arch Lead
Firstname Lastname

Tech requirements, architecture, reviews, decisions & prioritization

M365 admins
Firstname Lastname

Tenant/environment, preparation, configuration, testing

Prevent or reduce damage from a breach

